if he had forgotten himself and his ancestors. We always suspect a man who contemns his poor kin. This the editor of the Journal tries to do, when he speers at the Yankees, Irish, and Dutch in mass, and especially at the former; for everybody knows that the Irish and Dutch are not pioneers. Very few of them are to be found on onr frontiers.

If a Territorial Legislature essays to abolish slavery in Kansas, a question will be raised for the Supreme Court of the United States to settle. A vote of Congress cannot decide it. There is not the remotest probability that Congress will over ravise Territorial action on the subject. It involves a legal question that the Federal Court must settle, if it is ever settled. Before that tribunal this Northern and Southern theory on the slavery question will be in point. If either party is not satisfied with the decision that may be made, it will be time enough to consider the mode and measure of redress. All that Congress can do is hausas have a fair opportunity to vote on the subject. Indeed, the question itself can last but a give them an opportunity of purchasing it. Sucyear or two, as all parties agree that when the Territory forms a Constitution to be admitted as a question, and there will be none to gainsay it.

How does no know it was false? The majority of the party evidently voted for Aiken -voted for one of the foreign, anti-American party-one of the party accused by the editor of the Journal of ought not to quarrel. a corrupt bargain with the Republicans of the New York Legislature-one who voted for Richardson ecstacies over their success in electing Banks. The profession is looking up. lested their good standing, by this act of theirs. amongst the faithful. They must make confession and receive absolution before they come home and was to elect Banks. Why didn't they rote dirant any more about a foreign or anti-American party. Not having the fear of-something before their eyes, they have voted for one of the fireign, anti-American party, against a sworn brother of lowing. It is a notice of the presentation of a boatmen the other. The last job is said to be the the Order, who is as much afraid of the Pope and silver cup to an editor: foreigners as they are. They are not to be trusted, that 's evident. Shouldn't wonder if they are gone, body and breeches; sunk deep in foreignism and anti-Americanism.

Here is the obligation of the second degree, which they must have taken, all of them: You, and each of you, of your own free will and accord, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, your refet nand reseing upon your right breast, and your right nand extended toward the flag of your coun ry, do solemaly and sincerely swear, etc., that you will support and Ipolitical matters, for all political affects, members of this Order in preference to other persons; that it it may be done legally, you will when elected or appoil ted to any official station conferring on you the power to do so, remove all foreigners, aliene, or known Cast other from other or place, and that you will in no case appoint such to any office or place in your gift, etc.

Will the cdi'or of the Journal explain how the an oath if men are to pay no more attention

Whilst we desire the editor of the Jeurnal to explain and clucidate these matters to the brethren, we do not blame these National Know-Nothings for their vote. They did the best they could. They had to vote for Aiken or be accessory to the election of Banks. They wisely chose the former. The result shows the folly of oaths in advance. It appears, too, that six of the National Know-Nothings preferred to see Banks elected to voting for Aiken. If that majority did right, as they no doubt did, what snall be said of the six?

Know-Nothing mare's nest about arms sent to the bloody "furriners" in Cincianati, just in time to shoot down Americans on election day, on the 7th of October last. The editor of the Journal echoed the fearful story, and it passed almost into an ar- banks. The truth is, the banks do not pay a boticle of faith with the brethren. They escaped nus to the State for the privilege of dealing in almost providentially from impending danger, by money and exchanges. The right to deal in money the watchfuluess of one General Sergeant, who and exchanges is, as we understand it, what tho pounced upon the weapons of death and bore lawyers would call a common law right, and wo them off.

The Quartermaster Ganeral's report, just published, gives some facts about the foggy matter any one from that pursuit, and that any taxation and leaves it still in the fog. Trae, it is plain enough the arms were not sent to shoot down tional. Tho right to deal in money and exchanges Americans, but why they were sent on Saturday before the election remains to be satisfactorily explained.

It seems that this Brigadier General Sergeant, in a pet at the commanders of some military companies, had disarmed the men. They sent to Quartermaster General Andrews for arms, He replied that arms could only be sent to the Major Generals of Division, and as their Division had none, they could not be supplied. Subsequently, the Hon. George E. Pugh was appointed Major General, and made a requisit on for arms. This was done September 18, 1855. The Quartermaster then required the direction of the Governor which was given September 27; but still he de clined seading the arms until some one from Cin cinnati informed him that there was great dissatisfaction in the Queen City at his non-compliance with the Governor's direction, when he concluded he would forthwith sond the arms, and telegraphed to Gen. Pugh, thus:

COLUMBUS, October 6, 1955. GEN. GEORGE E. PUGH, CINCINNATI: I will send by appears, this evenling, one hundred and eighty stand money; the take of the best of the bound of arms upon your requisition, of you desire.

Pugh replied:

Cincinnati, October 6, 1855.

Gen S. W. Andrews: Bon't send any arms until after the election.

Notwithstanding this reply, downcame the bone of arms that night, marked, singularly enough, of arms that night, marked, singularly enough, of arms that night, marked, singularly enough, of arms that night, marked direction, meaning of arms that necessary that the great advantages they enjoy the form and the finite propriety of putting those on a level—in regard the form and inducence, should be satisfied with the great advantages they enjoy. In the move now made in the Senate of them.

It seems to us that bank officers and stockholders at least by all before it is condemned.

There are hundreds who have attested its efficacy, and furnished the strongest testimonials of its efficacy, and furnished the strongest testimonials of the form and the flexier of Life to the forlorn and hopeless incentative qualities. TERRIBLE EXPLOSION AND LOSS OF LIFE .- Be tween 6 and 7 o'clock yesterday morning, a boiler in Lawrence's Iron Foundry, at Canton, bursted tearing the roof completely off that portion of the house in which the engine was located, and shivering the smoke pipe into pieces. A man in the foundry, named Henry Beck, was standing near the boiler at the time, and bown a distance of some 50 yards, passing through a window into the yard; he presented the most horrible picture we ever looked upon. The back portion of his head was completely blown off, his hands and feet wrenched from their proper places, and his body dreadfully mangled. Another, whose name was John Razor, had his ancles broken, and was badly scalded.

The explosion was caused by the negligence the watchman, who allowed the water in the boild to get too low, in c asequence of which the flu ng themselves in primitive style upon the floor. collapsed, causing the explosion. By the way, the li man Catholias are so satisfied with the "criumph" in the acquittal of Father l'echerini, a thing deemed unlikely, as the jury was mixed—that the trial has been published in a pampblet form. There was no evidence to connect him directly with the burning of the Bibles; and therefore, ho was acquitted, and properly; but he never declared, nor did any one for him, his dis spproval of the act—the books being the "authorized version." On the centrary, Tablet and Telegraph, with many of the provincial papers, have over since been ringing changes on its "corruptions and mutilations." And the Protestants have been turning to account Mr. O'Hagan's eulogy of the Bible, in his defence, and of Bible reading, and his audations of the Churh of Rome, for promoting

1850, called the Gospel in Central America, there is recorded a singular fact. This work is the only reliable anthority on this country. The anthor, Frederick Crowe, was an exemplary preacher of the gospel, of the Baptist persuasion, and he have recorded so many facts, that the work has been uppressed by the British government. He states but there exists among the Indians an old tra-itionary prophecy that they would be deliveri from oppression and cruelty by 'The Gray-Eyed

"Mr Crowe in a note, adds this prophetic re nark: 'We would remind these who are disposed outside any importance to the prognostic, that ray eyes are common to the entire Angle-Saxon race; and that the fulfillment of this propher may be reserved to our transatiantic descendant the lankees), who are now even taking a lively ntcrest in Central America. (See Crowe's Cen ral America, page 248).

"This tradition is well known to many resident now in Nicaragua to exist among the Indians, and is religiously believed by them. It has been narrated by many to us.

"If we were disposed to believe that the rase of prophets did not die with 'Isaiah and Jeremiah and why should they?), we would say that this raditionary prophecy has been fulfilled to the ctter. 'The Gray eyed Man' has come. He has ctter. 'The tray eyed Man' has come. It is has some, not as 'Attila,' or a 'Guardiola,' but as a friend to the oppressed and a protector to the helpess and unoffending. The prophecy is deemed by the Indians as fulfilled; for last week we saw in Grands a delegation of them, who rarely visit this city, who desired to see General Walker. They were charmed by his gentle reception, and offered him their heartfelt thanks for their liberaion from oppression and for the present quiet state of this country. They laid at his feet the simple offerings of their fruits and fields, and hailed him as the 'Gray-cyed Man,' so long and anxiously waited fer by them and their fathers.

"There is in these facts a tincture of romance almost too charming to be real; but it is not to be denied tha" General Walker has won more on the hearts of the natives by his justice and generosity than by his sword. They know and have seen that he only wars upon oppression, treasen, and cruelty, and will prove the ready defender of innoence and encourager of industry and virtue.

Bo much has been said about Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Daguerreotypes that we hardly know which deserves the palm. There is one thing, however, that we feel justified in saying to our lady readers, and that e: If they will visit Roessere's Mammoth Daguerrean Gallery, No.581 Main arreet, between Second and Third, they will find some of those elegantly finished and lifetake Dagnerreotypes which, have rendered these rooms the recort of the beauty and fashion of the city and country. The pictures taken by Roesberg do not make the light and red thair appear as dark as midnight? In the light and ahade, and "hold, as a proper distinction of light and ahade, and "hold, as it were, the mirror up to nature," correctly portraying the peculiar features of the originals. So, we advise all to be no longer humbugged with high-priced like nesses, while these magnificent pictures may be obtained for fifty cents and upwards. At this gallery may also be found one of the finest assortments of Cases in the city, which are sold cheaper than at any other house. Call and you will be satisfied.

Meccessaries of Life,

Flour, Whisky, and Tobacco have long been regarded henecessaries of life—but it is a mistake. We can "thought flour—that is, Daguerreotypists can "t—for it is too dear; the temperance men wont let us drink Whisky, and the Tobacco crop is a failure. What we can "t get it is plain we must do without, and what we can do without is not a necessary. The provert, then, is a false-ance. But one of HARRIS's Dagurreotypes—bright sparkling, rich, beld, and clear—whith we can get and sameted without—that is a necessary of life.

Persons wishing to go to Shepherdsville, by the Lexisville and Nashville Ballroad, will please leave neir orders at OWEN'S FOTEL.

RIVER AND WEATHER.

By private advices from Captain McGill we learn at the David White is in a safe harbor at Hawesville and will be up and leave for New Orleans immediately ire not very flattering at present.

The Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday says he weather continues nausually cold. At dayligh esterday morning, the mercury was down to thirteen degrees below zero, in Newport. While crossing the cently cut outside the steamers at the levee, was par ubtless be found closed solid this morning. The rive still receding slowly. A majority of the steambou flicers and owners in port met on Saturday, and passed esolutions endersing the action of the "New Orleans Union Marine Association." The Batesville Standard, of the 19th inst., has t

At this point White river is frozen entirely up, and is such a condition that it is with great difficulty and considerable risk that it is crossed at all. In some places is thaked up together from five to ten feet, making complete dam, and causing water to back up five orsifectionan hour.

137 The Pittsburg Post says: We find by neareful count of the number of boats no ce bound on the Monongahela and Allegheby rive hat we have fifty-live in readiness for the early apri twe have fitty-five in readiness for the early spring , showing a resistered tomage for passenger and ght boats of 1,355 tons, and for tow and coal tugs of tons. As a dispute has sricen in reference to the pair ton of hosts navigatic gour rivers, we have to pain to find the exact value of the number now e, which reaches the large aggregate of $754,000 or a e over $70 berton. est per ton of hoats navigate g our rivers, he have keen pains to find the exact value of the number now ere, which reaches the large aggregate of $754,000 or a sile over $750 per ton.
Hestades the above, there are six steamers now finishing on the Monorgabela, of large capacity for carriage, and two on the Allegheey river, making the total numer at the wharves to be od.

The river now declines but slowly. Now of Harpeth shouls ave feet scaut. - Nash. Union, Feb. 2. REVIEW OF THE MARKET CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4. SENATE-Petitions were presented from naval cers aggrieved by the action of the retiring Mr. Toombs said that the board should have cept a record of its proceedings, to show that the Wrong and injustice had been done by their decisons, and no act of his should sanction their proceedings.

Nir. Clayton defended the board, but was unwilling to correct the errors they may have unin-tentionally committed. The President and Sccretary of the Navy have the power to revise the ac-

Mr. Bonjamin contended that the Navy Board and not exercised any jurisdiction, but had simply given their advice and epinion on matters before them. Mr. Bayard had no imputations to make against a beard composed of honorable and meritoousmen. The law under which they acted was the most barbarous ever passed by the Legislature of any civilized country. He recommended the eassage of an act authorizing the establishment of Revision Board—the majority composed of Civilians.

Mr. Crittenden believed it was perfectly cometent for Congress utterly to annul and abrogate bo action of the board and make it as though it ad never existed.

After further debate the subject was postponed.
Many bills were introduced principally for interal improvements, and one by Mr. Adams for exending the term of naturalization. On motion of Mr. Pisk, the Committee of Finance was instructed to inquire whather the Spanish silver coin may not be removed from circulation, or have a value established by law to accord with their intrinsic value and to avoid the fractional part of a cent.

The Senate then adjourned.
